

THIRD CONTEST PERIOD STARTS TOMORROW

ESSENTIAL THING FOR SUCCESS IS SUBSCRIPTIONS

BEGIN EARLY AND CONTINUE UNTIL END

Work Cheerfully, Hopefully and Perseveringly, and the Orders You Secure Will Make a Substantial Showing Against the Few Refusals You Receive.

The third period of the Bulletin's contest begins tomorrow as does also the issue of the prize ballots for organizations for clubs of nine yearly daily subscriptions. The third, like the first and second contest period requires the one essential thing for success, and that subscriptions. The organization candidate who gets the most subscriptions will get the most prize ballots and hence the big grand prize ballot on June 17th.

Count Thursday.
During the third contest period the counting of ballots will be frequent. The first one will be made Thursday evening. Another following this, will soon be announced.

Just about one in so many people cannot subscribe when you ask them. Consequently the more people you ask, the more refusals you get, but then there's the other side.

The more people you ask, the more subscribers you get. The more subscribers, the more votes. The more votes, the more chance for a long trip on June 24th, and one of the prizes on June 17th.

It all comes back to the same thing—the way to win is to go after subscribers. The way to go after them is cheerfully, perseveringly, hopefully.

Show them you are determined to make your work count for something and they will think it worth while to do what they can for you.

Tell them all the reasons you have for asking that their subscription be promptly made and for as long a period as possible. People like to know what they are paying out their money for.

Of course, they know that in subscribing to the Bulletin they are paying for the best paper they can get; but, outside of that, they may not realize how much gain it means to you should they take the subscription for a whole year in advance, rather than for three or six months.

Most likely they have no idea that it will make a great deal of difference whether the subscribe now or just some time before the close of the contest.

These are points for you to make clear to them. A word about about your ambition, and the special reason why you are so anxious to win, will probably make them more interested.

Nominations at any Time.
The nomination coupon will not be run daily any longer but this does not mean that nominations can not still be sent in. Nominations of organization or trip candidates can be made at any time during the contest. From time to time the nominating coupon will appear in the paper, but if it does not appear at the time when you want the blank, write out the name, address, and occupation on a piece of paper and send to us; it will count for the 5000 nominating votes as if on a regular coupon.

Names of candidates when first nominated will be printed for one time and then not again until they receive votes at some count.

Subscribers sending in payments to the Bulletin must always mention the name of the individual trip contestant and the organization contestant, they wish to vote for, as all ballots are filled out before leaving office. You can hold back the ballots as long as you wish. Always state whether you want the votes cast or returned to you.

Every subscription payment made on or since March 28th entitles the payer to votes for a trip contestant. Every payment made on or since April 27th entitles the payer to votes for both a trip contestant and an organization contestant. Present receipts and votes will be issued.

Remember you get two sets of votes if you pay or have paid your subscription since April 27th; one for a trip candidate, and another for an organization candidate. An equal number of votes as given in the standing vote schedule are issued for both.

Keep your paper coupons for trip and organization candidates separate and do not roll the votes. Send them in, in envelopes with the name of the candidate and the number of votes they contain written on the front. This will help to make counts accurate and prompt, and permit you to estimate what correct total should be in advance.

How Votes Are Issued.
Every copy of the Bulletin will contain a coupon, which, when properly filled out, will entitle the holder to votes of the number specified. Votes are also issued on paid subscriptions to the Evening Bulletin in proportion to the length of time such subscriptions are paid in accordance with the schedule appearing below.

The foreignistic fans are now recognizing Bombardier Wells, the British heavyweight, as the champion of England and holder of the Lord Lonsdale belt. Wells put the K. O. sign on Ian Hague after outpointing Porky Flynn, the American pugilist, and according to the English fight dope this places Wells on top of the heap of heavyweights. Many of the British bugs believe that Bombardier would not have a ghost of a chance against Sam Langford, the American negro heavy.

FREAR EXPLAINS HIS POLICIES

Gives Reasons For His Desire to Receive Reappointment.

In elaborating upon the first announcement of his candidacy for reappointment, given to the Bulletin yesterday, Governor Frear says:

"The people in general have treated me very well and have been very considerate and I have nothing to complain of, although one in this office must necessarily expect more or less criticism and necessarily must be obliged, in the performance of what he deems his duty to tread on the toes of a good many people.

"But in spite of all that I have found much that has been pleasant and a great deal that has been very interesting.

"It takes time to study conditions, formulate policies and work them out and there is much that can not be done without legislation. Considerable was accomplished in the way of legislation during the first session in my administration, that is, two years ago, and much more during the recent session, so that the next two years ought to count for much more than any previous two years.

"I would like to see some of the policies that we have been working on developed more fully and more securely established. There are a great many policies. For instance, in regard to the public health—a fair start was made in the matter of leprosy two years ago. A new policy in regard to that had been formulated and the necessary legislation was enacted during the first session and now we are beginning to realize the desired results. Another year or two ought to put that matter in good shape.

"Then there is the matter of general sanitation and the prevention and suppression of contagious and infectious diseases, in connection with which a large number of very important laws were enacted during the last session.

"Much had been accomplished before in the reorganization and energizing of the public health department in all its branches and now we are prepared for more pronounced advance in the work.

"A beginning was made in the matter of legislation in connection with tuberculosis two years ago and this has been greatly extended during the last session.

"Then, of course, there is the putting of Honolulu into a permanent sanitary condition, both with the authority and means provided by the last legislature for immediate work, and, through the sanitary commission, with reference more to the future.

"There is also the matter of the public lands, especially in connection with homesteading. The necessary amendments to the organic act were finally framed after a great deal of study, and they have been enacted by congress. It remains to apply them in a way that will work as satisfactorily and successfully as possible.

"Next there is the whole subject of conservation, which is closely connected with the material welfare of the territory at every point, both in connection with the main industries and homesteading, embracing the hydrographic and topographic services, forestry, entomology, animal industry and the establishment of experimental and demonstration farms.

"Then, of course, there is the new law placing the public schools on a proper financial basis for the first time, and the working out of new policies made possible by that.

"Under the new loan bill it will be possible to do a great deal in the matter of public improvements, such as wharves, waterworks, school buildings and other public buildings, etc., including the proper location or housing of both of such public institutions as the insane asylum, the prison, the boys' and girls' industrial schools, the public library, etc. The Judiciary building also has to be made over.

"In these directions the next two years will be a period of unusual progress and development. This will involve the expenditure of a great deal of money, provided for by the loan act.

"There is scarcely any matter of greater importance than the finances of the Territory and the County, viewed both singly and in relation to each other. Much has been accomplished during the last two sessions of the legislature to put these on a sound basis and with a view to the prevention of waste of funds and the greatest economy and efficiency in their expenditure.

"The new laws in regard to this matter need careful working out, and in connection with the finances, as well as all other matters as between the Territorial and County governments, there will need to be further study and investigation, with a view to clearing up the laws on these subjects and putting both classes of government upon definite and satisfactory permanent foundations."

APPOINTMENTS BY GOVERNOR

A number of appointments were made by Governor Frear yesterday. The three members of the Oahu Loan Commission were named—Andrew Adams, Samuel Dwight and T. H. Petrie. In accordance with the provisions of the law passed at the last session of the Legislature Marston Campbell as Superintendent of Public Works and Mayor Fern will sit as ex-officio members of the commission.

Dr. W. S. Baldwin was reappointed as a member of the Territorial Board of Health and Dr. A. J. Derby as a member of the Board of Dental Examiners. J. W. Waldron and Gen. Davis were appointed members of the Board of Prison Inspectors for the first judicial district.

Yesterday afternoon a discontinuance was entered in behalf of the Ewa Plantation Company by the firm of Kinney, Prosser, Anderson and Marx in the injunction action against Frank B. Craig.

While Craig was at the height of his activity and before the special emigrant laws had been passed by the Legislature the plantation company secured an injunction before Circuit Judge Robinson to stop Craig from luring away the labor employed at Ewa.

The first Jew in the history of New Jersey to become a justice of the State supreme court is Samuel Kelsh, who was recently appointed by Governor Woodrow Wilson.

DICE AND BOOZE OFF TRANSPORTS

Investigation Leads to Ban On Liquor and Gambling On Board Ship.

SAN FRANCISCO.—The selling of liquor and pies and the practice of gambling on the transports plying between San Francisco and Manila has been abolished, according to the soldiers who arrived on the transport Logan yesterday.

Though there were nearly a thousand soldiers and civilians aboard the Logan thirsting for a drink, a cut of pie baked by the ship's baker, or longing for the chance to venture the greater portion of several years' pay on the turn of a card or on the roll of the dice, there was no opportunity to gratify their desires.

The lid has been closed down tight, ever since the ship sailed from Manila when Colonel Chamberlain of the Philippine Inspector General's department, gave orders, enforcing the regulation, under pain of immediate arrest and trial by court martial of any offenders. In the case of civilians being implicated, the culprit would be tried in the Federal courts.

Before this the department had conducted a quiet investigation, during which it is claimed that startling conditions developed. It is claimed that the testimony of various members of the steward's department of the transport, showed that thousands of dollars worth of liquor and several thousand pies had been disposed of during each trip.

Although the pies were supposed to have been made from the table waste, this is discredited by many, who say that when the inquiry is finally concluded and the results made public, it will be shown that over half of the flour and much other material supplied the commissary department, went into the little pies, to the private profit of an organized gang, in the employment of the service.

Despite the fact that the results of the investigation have been kept secret it is said that a number of persons associated with the service have been implicated and that action will shortly be taken by the department at Washington.

It is said that the disregard of the regulations prohibiting the sale of liquor on board the transports, has grown so flagrant of late, that the suspicions of the department were aroused and the investigation ordered. It is also said that certain persons connected with the transport service, have organized a system to distribute contraband among the soldiers to their profit.—San Francisco Examiner.
